

Please do not make any changes in the NJ Do Not Call law. This law is working, although I still receive unwanted sales calls (but they are far fewer now). If I don't want to be bothered by solicitation calls, why shouldn't that right be honored even if I have done business with a firm in the past? My privacy should be respected.